

EDGE SAINT COSTUME CONTEST

October 24th

Good Costume

Bad Costume

Hey EDGE Teens! On October 24th, we are having a night called “Holy-Ween” where we are going to teach you about the Christian roots to Halloween! Did you know that Halloween originally started as a Catholic feast day called “All Hallows Eve” to get people ready for November 1st: All Saints Day!

So, to help you get in the spirit for the night, we invite you to dress up as your favorite saint for the night! The best costume will win a prize!

Stuck coming up with a saint?

Check out: <http://saints.sqpn.com/>

where you can search for saints by name, date and interest (like the patron saint of football or the internet!)
